DATES OF ATTENDANCE _____

In order to receive undergraduate credit, a nondegree-seeking (special) student must have been out of school for at least one year for a first suspension or five years for a second suspension and must fall into one of the eligibility status categories three through 12 above. Special undergraduate students are limited to enrolling in a maximum of 11-credit hours per semester.

In order to receive graduate credit, a nondegree-seeking (special) student must fall into one of the eligibility status categories 10 through 12 above. Please read the Graduate and Professional Programs Bulletin and be aware of the general admission requirements therein as well as any special requirements in individual schools or programs.

I have read the eligibility statements above and understand that, if my eligibility is not established, I will not receive academic credit for courses taken at VCU nor will I be entitled to a tuition refund as a result of my ineligibility. I also authorize the above named school to release the information requested on this form.
